Who God Is

God wants to restore each one of you.

To restore is to renew, heal, and make alive.

How do we know God can restore us and change us?

Who God Sees We Are

We like to think God sees all things.

Galatians 6.22-23 But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control”

Who God Sees We Are

God sees our hearts and loves us and wants to restore us.

A pair of hands is shown holding a small green seedling with soil. The hands are positioned at the bottom and sides of the frame, with the fingers gently cupping the base of the plant. The seedling has several bright green leaves and a thin stem. The soil is dark and appears to be held in a small amount of soil. The background is a soft, out-of-focus light color.

Joel 2:12-13 “Even now, declares the Lord, return to me, with all your heart, with fasting and weeping and mourning. Rend your heart, and not your garments. Return to the Lord your God, for He is gracious and compassionate, slow to anger and abounding in love, and He relents from sending calamity.”

Isaiah 42.3 “A bruised reed he will not break, a smoldering wick he will not snuff out. He won’t brush aside the bruised and hurt and he won’t disregard the small and insignificant. He will gently encourage us to be whole and strong.”

A pair of hands is shown holding a small green seedling with soil. The hands are positioned on either side of the plant, with fingers gently supporting it. The background is a soft, warm light, suggesting an indoor setting. The seedling has several bright green leaves and a thin stem. The soil is dark and appears to be in a small container or tray.

2 Corinthians 4:16-18 “Therefore, do not lose heart. Thou outwardly we are wasting away, yet inwardly we are being renewed day by day. Our light and momentary troubles are achieving for us an eternal glory that far outweighs them all. So we fix our eyes not on what is seen, but on what is unseen. For what is seen is temporary, and what is unseen is eternal.

The Lord Is My Shepherd

Psalm 23.1-3 The Lord is my shepherd I shall not want, He makes me to lie down in green pastures, HE leads me beside still waters.

HE restores my soul.”
